NEWS RELEASE

January 17, 2006

DPS-06-002891 – ARMED ROBBERY SUBWAY SHOP
- BROOKLYN, CT.

On January 17, 2006 at 3:55 PM Troop D received a 911 call from the clerk at the Subway Sandwich Shop 576 Providence Road Brooklyn, Ct. reporting a robbery. Troopers from Troop D along with K-9 units and Detectives from the Eastern District Major Crime Squad responded to the area. Information developed indicated that a white female, approximately age 20, with blonde hair entered the sandwich shop and ordered a grinder. When she went to pay the female demanded cash from the clerk implying that she was armed with a weapon. The female obtained cash from the clerk and fled on foot away from the shop with cash and the grinder. The female is described as a white female, age 20, blonde hair, wearing a black long coat, black cap and blue jeans. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to call the Connecticut State Police Troop D at (860) 779-4900 or the Troop D Crime Tips Hotline at (860) 779-4944. No one was injured during the robbery.
